

I don't mind Sinclair putting people on by showing the propaganda film, Stolen Honor, but in fairness you should allow for the just released film, Fahrenheit 911. Your Czar, Michael Powell's dad doesn't look bad in that movie and might just learn a thing or two about how a country loses it's fairness and balance in an idealogues new world order;a very good film indeed.

You should be ashamed of yourselves for allowing such a thing and for your rebuke of my response to your inaction.
